To all the students of AICS who are in their respective places

Greetings from AICS in Jesus' precious name.

As we are busy for our respective works, I have not been communicating to you for some time. I feel that it is important to share some important matters with you now.

1. We are happy with our B.D. and M.Div. Final Results. Among the B.D. Final year students, we have 3 in A-, 6 in B+, 9 in B, and 2 in B-. At the same time, among the M.Div. final year students, 1 got A, 2 got A-, 3 got B, and 1 got B-. No one failed, and we are very happy and we heartily congratulate the newly graduates.

2. We are also happy with our M.Th. final result. Among 6 students, 5 of them got B+. One of them, unfortunately, has to revise the thesis. We hope that when the result of the revised thesis comes out the student will get B+.

3. I would like to remind you that you are not on Holiday. Remember that you are on regular classes each and every day. Spend your time faithfully for your study even if your teachers do not take classes any more. Try to read whatever reading materials you have for your subjects. Read other important writings too which will enhance your knowledge. Always keep up your life befitting a theological student. Prepare each day for the upcoming exam.

4. As the Covid-19 situation is worsening, be careful as much as possible. Be example to the people around you, and with whom you are living together. Take care of your health. Take good physical exercise. Let us fervently pray for medical workers, defence forces, task forces, and all those who are directly involved in Covid-19 operation.

5. Let us continue to pray for each other. As we are facing boundary dispute with our neighbouring state, Assam, let us pray for our government to stand firm for our land, for our forces to wisely and courageously face enemies, for their safety and for the safety of our people, especially those who are in the border areas with Assam. Let us pray that the dispute will be settled soon.

Let us hope and pray that the problem created by Covid-19 pandemic will come to an end soon, so that we will be able to come together to the AICS campus in the near future.

God be with you wherever you are.
With best wishes

Rev.Dr.Vanlalchhawna Khiangte
